

Leadership

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword

Preface

Acknowledgments

I. Chapter One - Introduction and Overview

II. Chapter Two - Research Methodology

1. The Project Paradigm
2. Data Collection and Analysis
3. Data Collection Questionnaire
4. Project Plans

III. Chapter Three - Review and Use of Related Literature

5. Transformational Leadership
6. Charismatic Leadership
7. Servant Leadership
8. Summary

IV. Chapter Four - A Heart for People

9. Leaders as Story Tellers

The Creation of a Heart for People

10. Family Influence
11. Religion
12. Modest Beginnings
13. Life Traumas
14. Military Training
15. Early Career Leadership Influences

An Inside View: Defining a Heart for People

16. Discovering the Goodness of People
17. Value and Trust Deployment

Keeping Alive the Heart for People

19. Stopping the Velocity of the Everyday World: Maintaining a Heart for People
 - Reading and Family Time
 - Philanthropy

Developing an Organization with Meaning through Vision

20. The Basics-Looking Ahead
21. Team Vision
22. Building a Value Vision

The Meaning of A Heart for People to the People

23. A Workplace of Respect
24. A Motivated Work Environment
25. An Extended Family Unit

V. Chapter Five -Shaping the Next Millennium

26. The Organization as a Place of Meaning

The Next Millennium

27. Characteristics
28. Requirements for Survival
29. A Global View with an Integral Perspective

Leading and Shaping the Next Millennium

30. Challenges
31. Awareness, Experience, and Change
32. Looking Ahead...

References

Appendices

- Appendix A: Omitted
- Appendix B: Additional Leadership Comments

Endnotes